SENCHASOU TEA made in Shimane, JAPAN / Leaf Tea “極み - KIWAMI”

-KIWAMI / Sencha with Matcha £6.00-

Senchasou's serendipitous signature tea

Born from a fortunate accident, this is Senchasou's specialty. After one of his many mountainous trips to sell tea, Naruse Ginzo the first manager of Senchasou, realised that in his haste to start his journey he had mistakenly put sencha into the matcha box. What he discovered was an appealing box of sencha leaves beautifully coated with matcha. With its mellow aroma and unique flavour, Naruse immediately knew the potential. Since then, Sencha with Matcha has become the company's original bestseller, gaining popularity amongst tea connoisseurs in Matsue and people all over Japan.

-KIWAMI / Hōjicha £6.00-

Made from finely ground roasted green tea grown in Shizuoka, our hōjicha powder has a subtle sweet taste with distinct nutty notes and deep earthy undertones.

Traditionally available as loose-leaf tea, our hōjicha's unique flavour is achieved through our master roaster's expertise before being carefully milled into a smooth powder. Enjoy its toasty scent in a pot of tea or use it for a variety of culinary purposes. Due to its low caffeine content and relaxing properties, it's perfectly suited for any time of day.

-KIWAMI / Genmaicha with Matcha £6.00-

Rich and full-bodied, this tea blend combines the grassy, vegetal notes of matcha with the cereal, nuttiness of roasted rice.

Distinguished by its fragrant aroma and buttery sweet and savoury taste, genmaicha is an integral part of tea culture in Japan. Typically made from green tea mixed with roasted brown rice, our powdered version is blended with premium Uji matcha from Kyoto, to enhance the umami and create a comforting, balanced cup of tea. High in nutritional value, you can also use it in various dishes.

Tea Powder

Our selection of premium Japanese tea powders is organically grown, single-origin and characterised by their appealing aroma and rich taste. Finely ground by specialist tea masters, they are not only deliciously smooth, but the powder form also allows your body to absorb a higher concentration of nutrients compared to standard loose-leaf tea.
