JAPAN HOUSE

LONDON

About

Concept

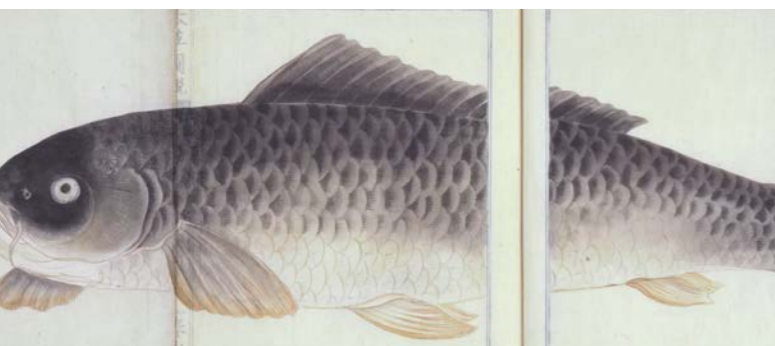

Japan House London aims to connect the lives of people in the United Kingdom with Japan in ways that unlock new and enriching relationships that are of cultural, economic and social benefit.

Experience

Japan House London is a complete cultural experience, promoting Japanese innovation and creativity. Visitors will encounter and discover contemporary Japan, its country, culture and people through a surprising and seamless presentation of retail, food and drink, travel, exhibitions, performances, seminars and workshops.

Venue

Japan House London is located on Kensington High Street in a stunning listed Art Deco building. The ground floor is a social retail space, offering a range of high quality Japanese goods and a coffee stand; on the first floor, there is a Japanese restaurant and a Tatami Room; and on the lower ground floor, a Gallery, a Hall and a Library.

Corporate Partnerships

Corporate partners are vital for the sustainability of Japan House London. We offer a rich and varied range of tailored opportunities, including sponsorship of our inspiring exhibitions and a variety of annual Corporate Membership packages.

Japan House London offers an ideal canvas to engage with clients and activate brands in an iconic setting. The varied programme and flexible approach enables special partnerships to be built which can include opportunities to:

Build client loyalty through hosting events in Japan House London's stunning entertaining spaces;

Host clients and expand networks with invitations to Japan House London events attended by corporate supporters, key influencers, designers and media;

Create stand-out partnerships and reach new audiences through association with the new and exciting Japan House brand.

Corporate Membership

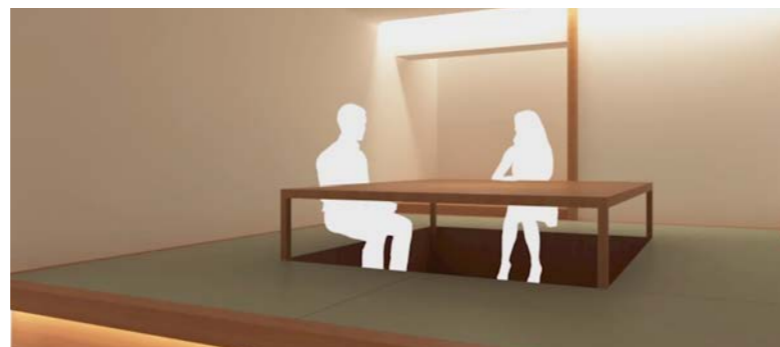

You and your guests will have exclusive invitations to exhibition opening events. You will also be able to take part in exclusive expert led guided tours, creative workshops led by our experts, entertain clients in our contemporary spaces and hear talks from curators at the top of their field.

There will be exclusive members' events offering excellent networking opportunities to build relationships with other key influencers from all sectors in the stunning setting of one of London's newest cultural institutions.

Sponsorship

When you sponsor our exhibitions and event programmes, we can offer you significant brand exposure and open doors to some excellent networking opportunities in London. We will help you create stand-out campaigns by aligning your brand with one of London's newest cultural institutions.

You will receive significant brand exposure both at the event and online, have the opportunity to entertain your clients at Japan House London and receive exclusive invitations to the exhibition opening and other events during the exhibition.
